Pain and Prejudice

By Laurie A. J. Williams

This novel is painful but a wonderment. It is an eye opening look into the world of many abused children who fight double prejudices. It is beautifully written and is most highly recommended.

Inspirational read

By Joy from Sydney Australia

What a moving and inspirational story. I loved it from beginning to end. Even though parts were confronting it was hard to put down. When one reads something like this about another's struggle to survive mentally and physically against all odds there are no words to describe the admiration engendered. So sad that the author missed put on a mothers love that is the right of every child.
