Language/Diet/Habitat

By USN Chief, Ret..VT Town

This book includes different types of dolphins and lists the habitat for each one. It also includes their diets and the "language" they speak. And, more.

And, one can double-click the pictures to enlarge them.

One thing that I found fascinating concerning the Blue Nose was that they actually cover their nose with sponges so the coral doesn't harm them. How smart is that?

Also, an explanation of how the dolphins use their teeth to help them hear. Wow!

Highly recommended...

Well Formatted, Even for E-ink Reader

By J. Robideau

My 3-year-old son and I enjoyed reading this book even on my e-ink kindle reader. The pictures were clear and well sized. The text/information itself was well written for children with interesting and pertinent facts and sentences that were not too long or complicated. Highly recommended!
