Favorite Bram Stoker Tale

By Marco Anthony

The Judges House has always been a favorite of mine. This edition attracted me based on cover art. Was not disappointed.

short scary story

By Gary Howell

I'm not sure whether this book was written prior to, or after Dracula, but the villain in this book reminded me a great deal of the Dracula character. I was able to read this entire book on a single flight from Washington D.C. to Florida. I enjoyed it. It also reminded me of The Twilight Zone television show because it's got that kind of creepy story line. I wonder if the television show drew inspiration from stories such as this.

Enjoyed this story.

By CodyLamm

Was expecting this to be a little longer, but I did enjoy the story. Maybe a little too obvious, but all in all a good read.
