The Collector's Edition Guide has no Spine Label!

By Adam Sanchez

I'm not one to write reviews very often, but in this case I wanted to help people make an educated purchase. The collector's edition of this book has no spine label. It is completely blank! I wrote Prima Games about this and they confirmed it was not a defect, that was how it was suppose to be. It's a really disappointing omission and one that doesn't make any sense to me. I have the other Zelda Collector's Guide and the same font and size would of fit on this book just fine.

Another thing of note is this is by far the thinnest of the Zelda CE Books. Half as thick as any of the other ones. I know this game isn't as deep as other mainline Zelda games, but I still wanted to mention it. This book also does not have the golden edged pages. If you want to get the hard cover guide, I would just say try and get a good deal on it.

The book is the usual good quality otherwise, but it not having a spine label is very odd.

Prima Games dropped the ball

By Christopher McKinzie

Prima Games really dropped the ball on this release. Not only does it not have the text on the spine that would match entire rest of the Collectors Edition series of guides, but they also chose not to do the nice cover and gold tipped pages. Quite disappointed. :(

I thumb my nose at you, PRIMA!!!

By Alicia L. Pettus

I don't usually do reviews, but I bought this and was a bit disappointed.

The actual strategy guide is very complete.

It's the Spine.

I have all of the Zelda Collector's Strategy Guides. (Some on my bookcase, some out and open) and I love that they are uniform and have all the spines with the titles.

I may be a bit OCD about it, but when I received this Collector's Strategy Guide, I thought there had been a mistake.

I thought that I had received an erroneous guide. Maybe a Misprint?!!!

It couldn't be, this was a travesty of epic proportions and I had to figure out what was going on. Poor Amazon didn't know what was the matter and offered me a refund if I returned it. But I didn't want to return it, not if it meant not having the collector's guide.

So I called PRIMA and my fears were confirmed. THIS was the Collector's Guide. There was no misprint. The spine was not labeled.

OHHH, Woe is me.

But alas, Not to be deterred and have a semi perfect collection, I turned to my trusty vinyl cutter and MADE my own Spine title. So THERE! PRIMA, I thumb my nose at you.

It may not be an exact match, but it is perfect for me.
